

Functional Requirements

1. Candidates should specify their skills, experience, education, career goals, and portfolio.
2. Employers should display company information, open positions, and other relevant details.
3. System should allow employers create job posting
4. System should recommend jobs to candidates & candidates to employers
5. System should allow candidates to browse jobs
6. System should allow employers to review applications
7. System shall prevent duplicates & conflict applications
8. System should compare candidates according to skills & tell them skills they miss
9. System should send notifications for new job matches

Non-Functional Requirements

1. Low Latency in searching
2. Reliability
3. Support large number of Daily Users